

Aurum Air Service

... is a young company and works in the maintenance of aircraft (Part-145, certified). We combine technical know-how with the passion for flying.

As of now we are looking for an

Aircraft Mechanic / Maintenance Technician (m/f/d)

Your Tasks:

- maintenance, repairs & modification of aircraft (up to 5.7 tons MTOM) of various brands
- perform of Pre-Buy Inspections
- individual conversions and upgrades
- aircraft maintenance & refurbishments

Your qualifications and skills:

- you are an aircraft mechanic, mechanic, mechatronics engineer, avionics engineer
- you need a good knowledge of English
- you are a independently and are a team player
- you know that the safety of others depends on the quality of your work and you do everything for it

Your prospects:

- a permanent employment contract and performance-related pay
- an interesting and exciting field of work
- flat hierachies and short communication channels
- offers for professional development

If you want to join us and be part of our successful team?

Then please send us your application via post or email:

Aurum Air Service GmbH

Mr. Reinhardt Michel

Tüngentaler Straße 192

74523 Schwäbisch Hall

reinhardtmichel@aurumairservice.de

We look forward to hearing from you!