

We are a young and highly motivated company with focus on first class maintenance of general aviation aircraft. Our company is strategically located at the Adolf Würth Airport – Schwäbisch Hall in Baden Württemberg with an excellent infrastructure for both, our customers and employees.

Our deep technical know-how is complemented with our passion for flying.
To expand our business we are looking for immediate hire

1 Aircraft Mechanic / Maintenance Technician (m/f/d) &

1 Certifying Staff (m/f/d)

Innovation & Responsibility - your domain

- maintenance, repairs & modification of aircraft (up to 5.7to MTOM) of various brands

Outlook & Success – your perspectives

- attractive compensation
- motivating working environment
- exciting projects
- excellent perspective for your personal development

Personality & Technical Knowledge – your qualification

- You are professional aircraft mechanic, mechatronics, automotive electrician or certified technician Cat B1 (EASA)
- You have profound knowledge of the English language
- You are able to take responsibility of your work and have a clear understanding of quality

If you want to join us and be part of our successful team, please send us your application via post or email:

Aurum Air Service GmbH, Mrs. Nadine Ernst, Tüngentaler Straße 192, 74523 Schwäbisch Hall nadineernst@aurumairservice.de